English Commission approves Anti-Racism Statement

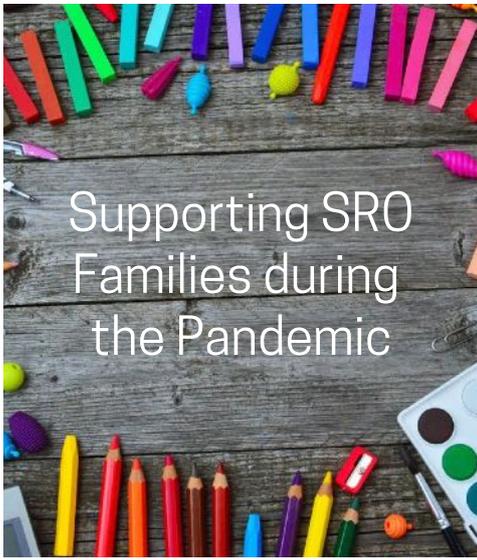

The English Worshiping Community stands in solidarity with the community in condemning the police violence and systemic racism that killed George Floyd and has historically targeted people of color. In this moment of national crisis and change, we search ourselves and acknowledge our own complicity in not prioritizing issues that have led to grave injustices in police enforcement and to devastating racial disparities. With a renewed sense of urgency, we add our voices to the demand for a transformation of systems that do not bring equal justice to all Americans, including the need to retrain all police officers and to reallocate funding to add mental health professionals to law enforcement teams. We are emboldened by our faith to continue to work steadily towards a racially just and inclusive society, and with love and humility, to discern our unique contributions to the ongoing struggle against inequality in all its forms.

Remembering Tom Feng

from Amy Feng

On PCC's website under the Mandarin's youtube link, click into Mandarin's 7/12/20 worship service... into about 80 minutes of the recorded youtube during teatime, you'll find a one-year anniversary In Remembrance of Tom. Two videos were played one after another, first one was at the memorial service a year ago, and the second one was for his 66th birthday, this April. Tom was a faithful member and leader of our Mandarin congregation.

With much gratitude, the Mission & Evangelism Committee reports that the goal of $3,000 was met through the generosity of the English Worshiping Community! Gift cards will be distributed to 200 Chinatown SRO families so they can purchase school supplies. If you would like to help with distribution and greeting the families on August 15th, 2-4 pm, email jeanette_huie@yahoo.com.

LGBTQ+ Pride in August

Mark your calendars for Sunday August 16th when we welcome Rev. Elizabeth McCord, Chaplain and Director of Spiritual Life at Carroll University, Wisconsin to our Pride celebration and service.

PCC Food Pantry Updates

Thank you to all the PCC volunteers who work at the Pantry! To volunteer on Saturdays 10am-12:30, please email Jeanine Lim Chan, jdotlim88@gmail.com. In accordance with SF Health Department's guidelines, we have masks, gloves and sanitizer available.

We also deliver to 15 seniors who are too frail to carry the bags. Let us know if you're interested in helping with this task; the delivery is to two SRO buildings on Clay Street.
